

AFVBM POLICY SUMMARY: REVISIONS & ADDITIONS 2014 - 2016

AFVBM Vision and Mission Statements – Concisely communicates the AFVBM Inc.'s purpose and philosophy to our members and the public via our website and mailings.

Alcohol Policy – The AFVBM will no longer pay for an open bar at our banquets as this is a fiscally irresponsible use of member's dues.

Communication Policy – The Board, operating as individual Governors or collectively, shall communicate with members a minimum of (4) times per year to inform members of news, events or other items of interest, and authorize surveys to gauge member's opinions as needed. It is important to keep the AFVBM relevant to members throughout the year.

Leave of Absence – Explains the terms, conditions and instructions for members taking a 2 year leave.

Logo Policy – Detailed instructions and terms for using the AFVBM logo on specified items only. Failure to comply with the rules will result in a member's expulsion by the Board. Allowing logo usage will increase AFVBM recognition to the public.

Photo and Data Collection of Exhibition Instruments Policy - AFVBM Inc. now takes all photos, collects data, and owns the 'masters' of exhibition instruments and bows, and retains sole copyright for any information collected now and in future.

Shared Media Policy – explains the rules for posting shared information on the AFVBM Facebook page, other social media outlets, Dropbox, etc. to respect the privacy and security of members, non-members, or facilities.

Suppliers Policy – AFVBM members who are also suppliers and toolmakers, no longer need prior Board permission for a listing in the AFVBM website supplier's page. Non-member suppliers must be vetted by the Board.

Treasury Policy –The Treasurer shall post the Profit and Loss statement and Balance sheet at least 2 times per year in the members-only and board-only area of the website as our books are open for inspection to every member at any time, however this financial information is for members-only and is not to be shared with non-members. Members will be required to use an on-line confidentiality agreement each time to view financial records. Requests for financial information from non-members will be disseminated through the Board.
